

Grevy's zebra (Equus grevyi)

- Grevy's zebra is the largest wild member of the horse family.
- Grevy's zebra foals can stand 6 minutes after being born, and can run after just 45 minutes!
- Grevy's zebras have big round ears, and have much narrower stripes than plains zebras.
- Every zebra's stripes are unique, like human fingerprints.

